World AIDS Day

December 1

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit and the District AIDS Prevention and Control Unit (DAPCO) in Raichur collaboratively organized a vibrant rally on December 1 to commemorate World AIDS Day. The event aimed to raise awareness, eliminate stigma, and promote HIV/AIDS prevention in the community.

Under the banner of the NSS Unit, college students, faculty, and DAPCO representatives gathered to participate in the rally. The procession commenced with a poignant ceremony at the college premises, featuring informative talks on HIV/AIDS, its global impact, and the significance of World AIDS Day. This was followed by the distribution of informational pamphlets to the public, ensuring that accurate knowledge about the virus was disseminated.

The rally, characterized by its energetic and colorful display, wound its way through the streets of Raichur. Participants carried banners, placards, and posters bearing messages advocating for safe practices, compassion, and inclusivity for those affected by HIV/AIDS. The event successfully attracted the attention of onlookers, sparking conversations and breaking down barriers associated with the disease.

The collaboration between the NSS Unit and DAPCO underscored the importance of community engagement in addressing public health issues. By fostering a sense of collective responsibility, the rally on World AIDS Day in Raichur contributed significantly to the ongoing efforts to create an informed and supportive environment for individuals affected by HIV/AIDS while promoting preventive measures within the community.
