Guest Lecture on Money Market Instruments

The Department of Commerce BRB College of Commerce Raichur has organized a Guest Lecture on Money Market Instruments for the M.Com students.

The Resources person of the program was Smt. Savitri Maski Director SUCO Bank Ballari. Addressed there are a variety of instruments traded in the money market in both the stock exchanges, NSE and BSE. These include treasury bills, certificates of deposit, commercial paper, repurchase agreements, etc. Since the securities being traded are highly liquid in nature, the money market is considered as a safe place for investment.

Types of instruments:

- Money market includes
- the uncollateralized segment (call, notice and term money market)
- the collateralized segment (trip arty repo, market repo and repo in corporate bonds)
- Commercial Paper (CP) and Non-Convertible Debenture (original maturity up to one year)
- Certificate of Deposit (CD)
- Treasury Bills and Cash Management Bills.

All the students provided a feedback and said that it was thought provoking session.
