Report on Suggi Habba Sankranthi

Date: 17.01.2023

Suggi Habba, also known as Makar Sankranthi, is a traditional harvest festival celebrated in various regions of India. It marks the transition of the sun into the zodiac sign of Capricorn (Makar) and is observed with great enthusiasm and cultural significance. This report aims to provide an overview of the Suggi Habba celebrations done at the College by Internal Quality Assurance Cell and Cultural Committee on 17.01.2023 at the college premises. At the beginning students sang folk songs and as a part of celebrations, certain rural games such as tug off war, lagori, skipping etc were conducted to the students. All the students enthusiastically took part in the games.

At the end Principal, Dr. Sheelakumari Das, distributed the Bangles, bananas and sugarcane to the staff members and students. The festivities of Suggi Habba serve as a reminder of the deep-rooted connection between humans and the land, as well as the shared joy of a successful harvest.
