Taranath Shikshana Samsthe BRB college of commerce Raichur has organized an employee development program to the final year students who are seeking for the job after completion of graduation which can help them to improve skills and abilities and can achieve greater success .

Benefits of EDP :

- Enhancing skills and abilities
- Increased satisfaction
- Improved productivity
- Lower training costs

Invite discussions on development and career improvement, establish formal training opportunities, create formal mentoring program within your organization, support and encourage cross training movement within the organization .As the pre

A company that wants to strengthen its bond with its employees needs to invest in a development program. This involves creating opportunities for role enhancement within the company as well as training and skill development that allow employees to enhance their employability in the market. Well trained employees perform better and have greater self esteem and commitment towards work.
